

Special Librarians Survey created October 2, 2009

Date	1. My institution has a policy for social networking or web 2.0	2. What social networking sites do you use at your institution?		Comments:
	Response	Examples: Linkedin, Facebook, Flickr, Twitter, MySpace, None	Other (please specify)	Open-Ended Response
1 10/05/2009				There may be isolated instances of social networking but no formal programs or policies that I know of yet.
2 10/02/2009	No—not even considering	None		HIPAA regulations are strictly enforced. Social Networking is seen as a serious breach of security.
3 10/02/2009	No—but developing	Facebook, Twitter	Intranet Shared pages within the institution. I have two links on our portal.	OSF is working on a policy. Each hospital at present is different.
4 10/02/2009	No—but developing	None
5 10/02/2009	No—not even considering	None		I have considered suggesting to our executive director the use of a social network for our historical society but lack of time to keep the site updated would be a problem.
6 10/02/2009				The policy is that we do not use any social networking - they say it is due to the HIPPA regulations and being part of a hospital.
7 10/02/2009	No—but developing	Linkedin	Almost all social media sites are locked down
8 10/02/2009	No—but developing	Linkedin, MySpace		Formal use is not the norm. There is awareness of use, and younger (and middle aged, too) attorneys and professional staff have one account or another.
9 10/02/2009	No—but developing	None
